

KONEPAJA SANDELL OY • FINLAND

KONEPAJA SANDELL OY is a subcontractor machining workshop and part producer for metallengineering industry. The company was founded in 1975. Its modern and well-equipped production unit is in Raisio.

Konepaja Sandell is one of the Apr. 30 small subcontractors in Turku area. The core business includes part-deliveries, planning activities and product development. The company searches for and executes creative solutions to client machining, specially exact measuring turningpart project's.

Sandell delivers all kind of lathe work, rounding off parts also to machines in service. Sophisticated project management ensures that part deliveries are delivered in sequence, with minimal disturbance. The owners have over 50 years' experience in part-delivers for metal working industry.

The main customers are from paper industry and the company is also interested of train building as a part deliver.

Sandell's number one priority is to offer the best possible solution and service to customers. It is on this basis that the company starts planning, how it progresses the part project, improves productivity and adds value throughout the process. Continual development is a necessity, and Sandell's work culture is customer oriented, flexible and open. Machining workshop Sandell believes strongly in the value of co-operation and network. Co-operation and partnership both within the company and with its customers ensures a continued competitiveness in domestic and in future foreign markets.

KONEPAJA SANDELL OY
www.nettiset.fi/sandell
Raisio • Finland